Personally I am unt in favor of any law which would, in any wise, prohibit the owners of stock from suffering them to run at large upon the com-mons, or on the unenclosed lands of the roads and turnpikes. I know of no one who is, and the absurdity of the attempt by Leglalation to prohibit stock from running upon so large an unenclosed territory sa there is in this County should, of itself, be a contradiction to the statement that I am favorable to any such laws. There are other reports circulated throughout the County, in all respects, too ridiculous and contemptible to notice. I have too high an appreciation of the intelligence of the pla of Lincoln County to believe that they expect me or my friends to follow up and stradict any such ridiculous reports and
